

Porte enshrined in amazing maze

The Mercury
13 Feb 2018

TASMANIAN cycling star Richie Porte is used to breaking away from the strongest cyclists in the world, but he would likely have a tougher time breaking out of a new maze built in his honour. The crop maze, which depicts Porte accelerating away from a chasing peloton, is the brainchild of farmer Rowan Clark, of Rupertswood Farm at Hagley in the state's north.

